AN ACT CONCERNING THE DISCHARGING OF MECHANIC'S LIENS
BY GENERAL CONTRACTORS.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Assembly convened:

- 1       Section 1. (NEW) (Effective October 1, 2006) Notwithstanding the 2       provisions of chapter 847 of the general statutes, an original contractor
3       for the construction, raising, removal or repair of a residential building 4       or any of its appurtenances may cause a mechanic's lien regarding 5       such building or any of its appurtenances placed pursuant to the 6       provisions of chapter 847 of the general statutes by a subcontractor to 7       be discharged by the superior court for the judicial district in which the 8       lien may be foreclosed pursuant to section 51-345 of the general
9       statutes, upon sufficient showing to the court by such original 10      contractor that such contractor has been paid in full by the homeowner 11      or that the work which is the subject of such lien was performed in an 12      unworkmanlike manner.

This act shall take effect as follows and shall amend the following sections:
